Recently I've been hit with the same question over and over again.

Guys want to know how to seduce a certain type of woman.

In other words, these guys realized they are with a certain type of woman, and now they want to know the best way to seduce that particular type of woman...

It's a good question.

But no one asks the "real question"...

NO ONE!!!

The real question is: How many sub-personalities does she have? (in other words, how many "types" is she)...and how do I identify when she is in one of those "types"?

The truth is these sub-personalities determine...

How serious she is at that time

Her voice tone

Her energy level

How she responds to you

A bunch of little stuff like that...

Power Tip: When you can identify her current sub-personality, all of the seduction knowledge that is stored in your brain becomes more useful, beneficial and effective...

Makes sense?

You see when you identify her 'type' or 'personality type' or 'psychological make-up' everything works better...

In other words, you get to honorably present the target woman with a guy (you), that gives her the warm fuzzy happy tingles...

(And the secret is, you don't have to be trained to identify what is obvious, because you are already equipped with the amazing ability to make human observations.)

Anyone who sees this is much more in-tuned than the average guy... I should know, because I talk to tons of guys... and trust me the average guy only wants to know how to "seduce women"...

But the guy who wants to know how to seduce a specific type is on to something...

(Maybe you have wondered about this. If so, you are way ahead of most guys.)

How do I seduce a woman who is shy?
How do I seduce a woman who is very confident?

You get the idea...

You must always remember:

Much of the seduction process involves conditioning.

This is not a bad thing.
This is not a good thing.

It describes the process in which humans/animals are behaviorally conditioned.

It wouldn't make sense to walk up to a specialist working at the zoo, and say: "How do you train animals?"

Right?

It depends on the animal.(Different animals have different behaviors...)

People have different behaviors.
People have different desires.
People have different goals/dreams.

Again, what you really want to start thinking about is sub-personality identification...

That is the key my friend...

Think about it – let's just say you have categorized a particular woman as a certain type. For example you classify her as being a "shy girl" (because 75% of the time she is reserved). The question is: What is going to happen when she begins to operate from a more outgoing perspective?

Some women are shy for the most part, but when they are in certain environments they are no longer shy.

Some women are shy for the most part, but when they are talking about certain things they are no longer shy.

You see if she isn't in shy mode AND you are still looking at her as a Shy Girl, then your strategy is going to be inappropriate...

You have to think of women as being a collection of different animals.

Let's pretend that 25% of the time she is a Human.
And 25% of the time she is a Smiling Dolphin.
And 25% of the time she is a Great White Shark.
And 25% of the time she is a Vampire Bat.

Here's the quiz:

Which two forms is OK to throw fish at her?
Which two forms is not OK to get cut around her (so that she can smell your blood)?
Which two forms is OK to kiss her on the nose?

Can a woman really change into an actual blood-sucking animal?

You're right again! It depends on the type of woman, because some women have this ability...

Wow. You catch on pretty fast!

The idea is simple, so keep it in mind.

"It doesn't matter how much seduction information you have installed in your brain, if you are using it on the "wrong version of the woman" things won't go your way..."

Could you imagine trying to use "brilliant dolphin training tactics" on a shark?
Could you imagine trying to kiss the smiling shark on his chin?

Now let's put it all together by looking at it in another way... (a special way!)

And this will tie everything together...(oh yeah, not that this is a topic on how to seduce shy girls, but if you own a copy of SSP then I will tell you that the SC System is PERFECT for shy girls – just in case, you didn't figure it out already.)

Let's get back on track...

And let me note, that I'm using 'shy girls' as an example of a 'type' of female, because it's important to understand that your results will depend strictly on how well your approach (the signals you send) matches with her type....

Here's an example that stresses the importance of identifying her type.

Two girls could be considered SHY...

- But Jenna (Girl #1) is shy 90% of the time at an intensity of 7 (on a scale of 1 – 10; 10 being extremely shy) and 10% of the time she is somewhat shy at an intensity of 5
- And Alexis (Girl #2) is shy 60% of the time at an intensity of 9.5, 20% of the time at an intensity of 8, 20% of the time at an intensity of 2 (meaning she is extremely outgoing)

Huh?!

Yeah, I know...

But please make sure you follow that... (read it a few times if you have to) because this is the kind of math that is fun.

And if I ever become a math professor, everyone would get A's (at least the guys would) because I would use sexual examples like this...

Ok, POP QUIZ:

For 10,000 points, which girl is more shy? (Jenna or Alexis)

(scroll down for answer)

Answer: It depends on when you ask the question...

Right?

At certain times (and situations/moods/environments etc), Jenna will be more shy and other times Alexis will be more shy.

Besides, it doesn't matter what the woman is like overall! (i.e. her overall type). The only thing that matters is her type at the particular moment in time.

What matters is what she is like at the time you execute 'your arsenal of building desire' skills and 'getting her turned on' skills...

Don't that make sense?

It really is that simple.

"Timing is the key to being effective at anything in this world."

Could you imagine getting a speeding ticket? (without realizing the concept of 'timing')

Officer: Here you go sir, sign here.

You: I'm sorry, officer. This ticket does not apply to me, because I follow the speed limit 97% of the time. So overall I am a Speed Limit Follower. You can either throw away that silly ticket or charge me 3% of the fine!

Officer: Step out of the car asshole!

As you can clearly see this type of thinking doesn't hold up in the real world...

I know a guy who says he has mastered every technique and philosophy that I have ever produced. But something goes wrong for him... He has the amazing ability (much better than average) to memorize and demonstrate persistence, but he lacks the ability to identify

As a concept, every guy has an Identifying Rating (the ability to make human observations) whether he realizes it or not.

In other words, let's say the average man has an Identifying Rating of 5.0 - 7.5

Well, this guy who memorized a lot of my material had a rating of 1.0

So he would study a pre-planned strategy for cultivating sexual desire to the point where it made a lot of sense to him, then with wired eye-balls he would rush over to his poor lovely wife and bombard her with dialogues... then he pause for a few seconds and look her up and down – then he would stare into her pupils – waiting for her to sexually attack him...

It doesn't work like that.

So I had to teach him basic human observation skills. (A skill that you probably already have)

Here's the good news. (And this is how I always look at knowledge)

If all of this stuff makes sense to you (even a little bit), then your Identifying Rating has increased!

That's how it works.

In fact, by law it has to increase (so this is going to benefit you – even if you still feel the same)... because anytime you *power up your Mental Motor (your philosophy that defines how you approach anything in life) you are forced to become better at things (overall)...

So I would strongly urge you right now, to take the time to identify all of her sub-personalities. (i.e. the woman you are in a relationship with or the woman you are interested in)

You don't have to have a Masters in Psychology to do this...

Just keep it super simple. For example:

Happy & Loving Brenda

Bitchy Brenda

Afraid Brenda

Party Brenda

If you said 'let's get wild and crazy and just take our clothes off right now!!!!'

Even though I'm shocked that you would say something so damn corny, do you think Bitchy Brenda and Party Brenda would have different responses to that request?

As a matter of fact there were several guys who used a certain SSP technique to make their wives incredibly horny, to the point where one guy asked me if it was voodoo. LOL (because he never seen a woman -- ever -- get that horny before so he thought he was doing something evil.

To me, it's funny, but let's be fair and respectful: Women have the right to get horny just as horny as us guys do...

But get this...

Another guy used the "voodoo" technique (that's not what it's really called) and his wife started crying!!

I'm talking about the exact same seduction technique (or pre-planned strategy to generate sexual arousal) (or compassionate method of allowing her to reach a state of mind where she is comfortable with expressing her affection on a deeper level)...

The reason is simple. The guy who ended up making his wife cry had a very poor Identifying Rating.

If you can tell the difference between her sub-personalities (and for some reason many guys can't) AND you employ sensible techniques that create a natural and healthy desire in women than you are in the Top 2% of Seducers (Guys who are Ninja-Skilled at turning women on) in the world...

Here's an example of something that is not sensible (to me)...

Someone sent me a link to site where a guy was talking about how to get women horny fast.

The "expert" in so many words said all you need to do is lick on her earlobe and she'll get horny as hell.

That's the fuckin' secret?

Are you kidding me?

I almost fell out of my chair from laughing so damn hard!

The article had other humorous suggestions that nearly made me pass out from Over Laughing.

And apparently a lot of guys respect this "so called" expert.

(I'm only sarcastic 10% of the time at any intensity of 10.00)

But he said he ended up screwing the woman after licking her earlobe so he knew "the process of licking her earlobe" was effective...

Listen I'll get to the point because my 10% is almost up. And I'll compassionately keep the "expert" free from public bashing, by not mentioning his name...

"Licking a woman's earlobe does not get a woman horny"

And "Rubbing her legs does not get a woman horny."

And "Rubbing her arms does not get a woman horny."

Licking a woman's earlobe let's the woman who is already horny for you know that you are also horny for her.

I don't know how else to put it.

If it were really effective (this is what I mean by "sensible techniques") than a crack head with 4 yellowish teeth in his mouth could walk up to any woman and lick her woman's earlobe and get the same results...
